ACQUIRED B  OATE OF IN  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE Reduction of the division to which the school was assigned, but members of the 12th, 117th and 120th filter Regions were taking the course of the 12th, 117th and 120th filter Regions were taking the course of the 12th, 117th and 120th filter are divided up into four platoons, each command by a licutenant. The entire course lasted about six months.  2. In the Soviet Army, chauffeurs are divided into three classes. A chauffeur this class may drive only jeeps and trucks. A chauffeur second class is permitted the drive ambulances, fire engines, tractors and seedans. A chauffeur free interesting the second three months.  2. During the first three months of the course we studded first echelon maintenance which consisted of checking the water, battery, gas, lights, and repair of time and redistors of vehicles. During the second three months, we were given instruction in electrical wiring systems, cerburetor repairs and act as an instructor, of the various parts of the motor, including the transmission and differential.  4. The school used three Studetaker two and a half ton trucks, five 212 (Zavod Imense trucks could carry. Practice runs were taken every fourth day. We would start out at 0000 hours in the morning and return to the school at 1400 hours. Wehicles would usually carry one instructor and six sudants. After each studen had received an hour's instruction in driving, the trucks would return to the school. This procedure was repeated in the afternoon, but only three students accompanied the instructor. I can't remember what distances we covered during these runs.  5. Our daily schedule was as follows:  Reveille				INTELLIGEN
SUBJECT Rudolstadt Drivers School  NO. OF ENCLS. 1  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  The divisional drivers school  Rudolstadt, Germany, but I am unable to plupoint it on a city plan. I don't knot the designation of the division to which the school was assigned, but mambers of the 112th, 117th and 120th Rrifle Regients were taking the course  There were shout 120 men division to which the school was assigned, but mambers of the 112th, 117th and 120th Rrifle Regients were taking the course  There were shout 120 men divided up into four platoons, each comman by a lieutenant. The entire course lasted shout six months.  2. In the Sowiet Army, chauffeurs are divided into three classes. A chauffeur this class may drive only jeeps and trucks. A chauffeur second class is permitted the drive ambulances, fire engines, tractors and seadens. A chauffeur first class mirve sny wehicle, must be able to make major repairs and act as an instructor, and ardiators of vehicles. During the second three months, we were given instruction in electrical wiring systems, consumeter repair and operation and nomenclast of the various parts of the motor, including the transmission and differential.  4. The school used three Studetaker two and a half ton trucks, five ZIC (Zavod Imes Stalina) three ton trunks, and one Willys jeep. I don't know what loads any of these trucks coll carry. Fractise runs were taken every fourth day. We would start out at 0000 hours in the morning and return to the school at 1400 hours, vehicle would usually carry one instructor and six students. After each students accompanied the instructor. I can't remember what distances we covered during these trucks coll carry. Fractise runs were taken every fourth day. We would start out at 0000 hours in the morning and return to the school. This procedure was rejected in the afternoon, but only three students accompanied the instructor. I can't remember what distances we covered duri			INFORM	MATION	REPORT
PLACE ACQUIRED E  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE designation of the division to which the school was assigned, but members of the IL2th, 117th and 22oth Rrile Regients were taking the course of the IL2th, 117th and 22oth Rrile Regients were taking the course of the IL2th, 117th and 22oth Rrile Regients were taking the course of the IL2th, 117th and 22oth Rrile Regients were taking the course of the IL2th, 117th and 22oth Rrile Regients were taking the course of the IL2th, 117th and 12oth Rrile Regients were taking the course of the IL2th, 117th and 12oth Rrile Regients the IL2th Rrile Regients the IL2th, 117th and 12oth Rrile Regients the IL2th Rrile Regients the IL2th, 117th and 12oth Rrile Regients the IL2th, 117th and 12oth Rrile Regients the IL2th Rr	COUNTRY	/ USSR/Germ	lany	•		DATE DISTR. 23	Jun 1951
ACQUIRED  OATE OF IN  THE divisional drivers school  Report No.  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE designation of the division to which the school was assigned, but members of the 112th, 117th and 120th Hitle Regiments were taking the course  There were about 120 men  By a licutenant. The entire course lasted about six months.  In the Soviet Anny, chauffeurs are divided into three classes. A chauffeur thin class may drive only jeeps and trucks. A chauffeur second class is permitted the drive ambulances, fire engines, tractors and sedans. A chauffeur first class may drive only jeeps and trucks. A chauffeur second class is permitted the course may vehicle, must be able to make major repairs and act as an instructor.  During the first three months of the course we studded first echelon maintenance which consisted of checking the water, battery, gas, lights, and repair of time and rediators of vehicles. During the second three months, we were given instruction in electrical wiring systems, corburctor repair and operation and nomencles of the various parts of the motor, including the transmission and differential.  4. The school used three Studetaker two and a half ton trucks, five 212 (Zaxod Ineus Stalina) three ton trucks, and one Willys jeep. I don't know what 12 (Zaxod Ineus Stalina) three Course instruction in driving, the trucks would return to the school. This procedure was repeated in the afternoon, but only three students accompanied the instructor. I can't remember what distances we covered during these truns,  In Rudoisted and the immediate vicinity.  Calestenice	SUBJECT	Rudolstad	t Drivers School	1		NO. OF PAGES	2.
ATE OF IN  1. The divisional drivers school was located in the center of Rudolstadt, Germany, but I am unable to pimpoint it on a city plan. I don't to the designation of the division to which the school was assigned, but members of the 12th, 1/17th and 12th Rifle Regiments were taking the course There were about 12th ment and divided up into four platoons, each comme by a lieutenant. The entire course lasted about six months.  2. In the Soviet Army, chauffeurs are divided into three classes. A chauffeur this class may drive only jeeps and trucks. A chauffeur second class is permitted the drive ambulances, fire engines, tractors and sedans. A chauffeur first class drive any vehicle, must be able to make major repairs and act as an instructor.  2. During the first three months of the course we studied first echelon maintenance which consisted of checking the water, battery, gas, lights, and repair of tire and radiators of vehicles. During the second three months, we were given instruction in electrical wiring systems, carburetor repair and operation and nomenclar of the various parts of the motor, including the transmission and differential tion in electrical wiring systems, carburetor repair and operation and nomenclar of the various parts of the motor, including the trucks, five ZIC (Zavod Inel Stalina) three ton trucks, and one Willys jeep. I don't know what loads any of these trucks could carry. Fractice runs were taken every fourth day. We would start out at 0800 hours in the morning and return to the school at The School usually carry one instruction in driving, the trucks would return to the school. This procedure was repeated in the afternoon, but only three students accompanied the instructor. I can't remember what distances we covered during these runs,  3. Our daily schedule was as follows:  Reveille	PLACE ACQUIREI	D		1		NO. OF ENCLS.	ı
1. The divisional drivers school	DATE ACQUIRE	D E				SUPPLEMENT TO
1. The divisional drivers school was located in the center of Rudolstadt, Germany, but I am unable to pimpoint it on a city plan. I don't kn the designation of the divinion to which the school was assigned, but members to the 112th, 117th and 120th Rifle Regiments were taking the course	DATE OF	11			•
Rudolstadt, Germany, but I am umable to pinpoint it on a city plan. I don't know the designation of the division to which the school was assigned, but members of the 112th, 117th and 120th Rifle Regiments were taking the course There were about 120 men divided up into four platoons, each command by a lieutenant. The entire course lasted about six months.  2. In the Soviet Anmy, chauffeurs are divided into three classes. A chauffeur this class may drive only jeeps and trucks. A chauffeur second class is permitted the drive ambulances, fire engines, tractors and sedans. A chauffeur first class may be appeared to make major repairs and act as an instructor.  3. During the first three months of the course we studied first echelon maintenance which consisted of checking the water, battery, gas, lights, and repair of three and radiators of vehicles. During the second three months, we were given instruction in electrical wiring systems, carburetor repair and operation and nomenclast of the various parts of the motor, including the transmission and differential.  4. The school used three Studetaker two and a half ton trucks, five ZIC (Zavod Imer Stalina) three ton trucks, and one Willys jeep. I don't know what loads any of these trucks could carry. Fractise runs were taken every fourth day. We would start out a tooo hours in the morning and return to the school at 1400 hours. vehicle would usually carry one instructor and six students. After each student had received an hour's instruction in driving, the trucks would return to the school. This procedure was repeated in the afternoon, but only three students accompanied the instructor. I can't remember what distances we covered during these runs, in Rudolstadt and the immediate vicinity.  5. Our daily schedule was as follows:  Reveille	This posume or the unit and the of Carlon or o Passicires	TO CONTANTO TO OR SECE!	PT BY AM UMAPTHOMIZED PERSO	100 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	THIS IS U	NEVALUATEÓ INFORI	MATION
Rudolstadt, Germany, but I am umable to pinpoint it on a city plan. I don't know the designation of the division to which the school was assigned, but members of the 112th, 117th and 120th Rifle Regiments were taking the course There were about 120 men divided up into four platoons, each command by a lieutenant. The entire course lasted about six months.  2. In the Soviet Anmy, chauffeurs are divided into three classes. A chauffeur this class may drive only jeeps and trucks. A chauffeur second class is permitted the drive ambulances, fire engines, tractors and sedans. A chauffeur first class may be appeared to make major repairs and act as an instructor.  3. During the first three months of the course we studied first echelon maintenance which consisted of checking the water, battery, gas, lights, and repair of three and radiators of vehicles. During the second three months, we were given instruction in electrical wiring systems, carburetor repair and operation and nomenclast of the various parts of the motor, including the transmission and differential.  4. The school used three Studetaker two and a half ton trucks, five ZIC (Zavod Imer Stalina) three ton trucks, and one Willys jeep. I don't know what loads any of these trucks could carry. Fractise runs were taken every fourth day. We would start out a tooo hours in the morning and return to the school at 1400 hours. vehicle would usually carry one instructor and six students. After each student had received an hour's instruction in driving, the trucks would return to the school. This procedure was repeated in the afternoon, but only three students accompanied the instructor. I can't remember what distances we covered during these runs, in Rudolstadt and the immediate vicinity.  5. Our daily schedule was as follows:  Reveille
Rudolstadt, Germany, but I am umable to pinpoint it on a city plan. I don't know the designation of the division to which the school was assigned, but members of the 112th, 117th and 120th Rifle Regiments were taking the course There were about 120 men divided up into four platoons, each command by a lieutenant. The entire course lasted about six months.  2. In the Soviet Anmy, chauffeurs are divided into three classes. A chauffeur this class may drive only jeeps and trucks. A chauffeur second class is permitted the drive ambulances, fire engines, tractors and sedans. A chauffeur first class may be appeared to make major repairs and act as an instructor.  3. During the first three months of the course we studied first echelon maintenance which consisted of checking the water, battery, gas, lights, and repair of three and radiators of vehicles. During the second three months, we were given instruction in electrical wiring systems, carburetor repair and operation and nomenclast of the various parts of the motor, including the transmission and differential.  4. The school used three Studetaker two and a half ton trucks, five ZIC (Zavod Imer Stalina) three ton trucks, and one Willys jeep. I don't know what loads any of these trucks could carry. Fractise runs were taken every fourth day. We would start out a tooo hours in the morning and return to the school at 1400 hours. vehicle would usually carry one instructor and six students. After each student had received an hour's instruction in driving, the trucks would return to the school. This procedure was repeated in the afternoon, but only three students accompanied the instructor. I can't remember what distances we covered during these runs, in Rudolstadt and the immediate vicinity.  5. Our daily schedule was as follows:  Reveille
Rudolstadt, Germany, but I am umable to pinpoint it on a city plan. I don't know the designation of the division to which the school was assigned, but members of the 112th, 117th and 120th Rifle Regiments were taking the course There were about 120 men divided up into four platoons, each command by a lieutenant. The entire course lasted about six months.  2. In the Soviet Anmy, chauffeurs are divided into three classes. A chauffeur this class may drive only jeeps and trucks. A chauffeur second class is permitted the drive ambulances, fire engines, tractors and sedans. A chauffeur first class may be appeared to make major repairs and act as an instructor.  3. During the first three months of the course we studied first echelon maintenance which consisted of checking the water, battery, gas, lights, and repair of three and radiators of vehicles. During the second three months, we were given instruction in electrical wiring systems, carburetor repair and operation and nomenclast of the various parts of the motor, including the transmission and differential.  4. The school used three Studetaker two and a half ton trucks, five ZIC (Zavod Imer Stalina) three ton trucks, and one Willys jeep. I don't know what loads any of these trucks could carry. Fractise runs were taken every fourth day. We would start out a tooo hours in the morning and return to the school at 1400 hours. vehicle would usually carry one instructor and six students. After each student had received an hour's instruction in driving, the trucks would return to the school. This procedure was repeated in the afternoon, but only three students accompanied the instructor. I can't remember what distances we covered during these runs, in Rudolstadt and the immediate vicinity.  5. Our daily schedule was as follows:  Reveille which consisted of checking the water, battery, gas, lights, and repair of tires and radiators of vehicles. During the second three months, we were given instrution in electrical wiring systems, carburetor repair and operation and nomenclar of the various parts of the motor, including the transmission and differential.  4. The school used three Studetaker two and a half ton trucks, five ZIC (Zavod Imer Stalina) three ton trucks, and one Willys jeep. I don't know what loads any of these trucks could carry. Practice runs were taken every fourth day. We would start out at 0800 hours in the morning and return to the school at 1400 hours. vehicle would usually carry one instructor and six students. After each student had received an hour's instruction in driving, the trucks would return to the school. This procedure was repeated in the afternoon, but only three students accompanied the instructor. I can't remember what distances we covered during these runs,  1000 hours Rest period.  1000 hours Calisthenics.  1000 hours Rest period.		the 112th, 11 There were al	17th and 120th pout 120 men	Rifle Regime	ents were takir Divided up into	ng the course
Stalina) three ton trucks, and one Willys jeep. I don't know what loads any of these trucks could carry. Practice runs were taken every fourth day. We would start out at 0800 hours in the morning and return to the school at 1400 hours. vehicle would usually carry one instructor and six students. After each student had received an hour's instruction in driving, the trucks would return to the school. This procedure was repeated in the afternoon, but only three students accompanied the instructor. I can't remember what distances we covered during these runs,  1	2.	the 112th, 13 There were aby a lieutens In the Soviet class may dri drive ambular	17th and 120th; bout 120 men  int. The entire Aimy, chauffer live only jeeps a aces, fire engin	Rifle Regime , (e course las urs are diviand trucks.nes, tractor	ents were takin divided up into sted about six ded into three A chauffeur s s and sedans.	of our platoons, comonths.  classes. A chausecond class is per A chauffeur firs	ach commander thing the control of t
Reveille	2. [	the 112th, 13 There were at by a lieutens In the Soviet class may dri drive ambular drive any veh  During the fi which consist and radiators tion in elect	Army, chauffer conty jeeps cases, fire engine cite, must be a case three months of vehicles.	rifle Regime course last urs are divided trucks. Hes, tractor able to make the water, During the steps, carb	ents were taking divided up into sted about six deed into three A chauffeur seand sedans. It major repairs ourse we studie battery, gas, second three mouretor repair	of the course four platoons, e months.  classes. A chausecond class is pe A chauffeur firs and act as an in dights, and repair onths, we were girand operation and	ach commar  ffew thir  rmitted to  t class ma  structor.  aintenance  r of tires  ven instru  nomenclat
Calisthenics	2. 14.	the 112th, 13 There were at by a lieutens In the Soviet class may driv drive ambular drive any ven  During the fi which consist and radiators tion in elect of the variou  The school us Stalina) thre these trucks start out at vehicle would had received school. This accompanied t	Army, chauffer and 120th tout 120 men ant. The entire ant. The entire ant. The entire arms, chauffer are and the arms three months of checking of vehicles. The arms of the ar	rifle Regime course last are divided trucks. The second trucks are divided to make the water, buring the second trucks are done will be and one will be morning one instruction in description of the morning the morning one instruction in description in description in description in the morning one instruction in description in descript	ents were taking divided up into sted about six deed into three A chauffeur seand sedans. In major repairs deed the second three mouretor repair uding the trans and a half ton the second six striving, the trans the afternoon member what divided to the afternoon member what divided to the second three taken early the afternoon member what divided to the afternoon member what divided the second to the afternoon member what divided the second to the second to the second the secon	of the course four platoons, e months.  classes. A chausecond class is pe A chauffeur first and act as an independent on the course of the cou	ach commander this rmitted to teless may structor.  aintenance of tires wen instructor instructor instructor instructor instructor in student to the students in during CLASSIFICATION SECRET SEGRET	2. 3.	the 112th, 13. There were aby a lieutene by a lieutene. In the Soviet class may drive ambular drive ambular drive any veh. During the fi which consist and radiators tion in elect of the various Stalina) three trucks start out at vehicle would received school. This accompanied these runs,	The and 120th tout 120 men and 120th tout	rifle Regime course last urs are divided trucks. Tractor able to make the water, During the steps, carbonator includes runche morning one instruction in drepeated in I can't red	ents were taking divided up into sted about six deed into three A chauffeur seand sedans. In major repairs deed the second three mouretor repair uding the trans and a half ton the second six striving, the trans the afternoon member what divided to the afternoon member what divided to the second three taken early the afternoon member what divided to the afternoon member what divided the second to the afternoon member what divided the second to the second to the second the secon	of the course four platoons, e months.  classes. A chausecond class is pe A chauffeur first and act as an independent on the course of the cou	ach commander this rmitted to teless may structor.  aintenance of tires wen instructor instructor instructor instructor instructor in student to the students in during
STATE X NAVY X DISTRIBUTION	2. 3.	the 112th, In There were aby a lieutens by a lieutens. In the Soviet class may drive ambular drive amy vehous five any vehous five and radiators ation in electron in electron the school us Stalina) three trucks start out at vehicle would had received school. This accompanied these runs, Calisthen Morning to Breakfast Classes.	The and 120th tout 120 men ant. The entire ant. The entire ant. The entire ant. The entire and ant. The entire area and ant. It is a sparts of the area and ant. It is a sparts of the area and ant. It is a sparts of the area and ant. It is a sparts of the area and ant. It is a sparts of the area and ant. It is a sparts of the area and ant. It is a sparts of the area and and area area and area and area and area and area.	rifle Regime course last urs are divided trucks.  The course last urs are divided trucks.  The course last urs are divided to make the water, buring the saters, carbon motor, included the morning one instruction in direction in direction in direction in direction in Rudillows:  O600 hours O607 " O630 " O645 " O700 " O730 "	ents were taking divided up into sted about six and sed into three A chauffeur six and sedans. It is an an arrow to see an arrow to second three mouretor repair and a half ton the second three mouretor repair and a half ton the second three mouretor repair and a half ton the second three mouretor repair and a half ton the second return to tor and six striving, the truth afternoon member what discussed and the Rest period classes. Homework. Supper Free period Roll call.	of the course four platoons, e months.  classes. A chausecond class is pe A chauffeur first and act as an independent of the course of the cou	ach commander that the transfer of tires and the commander of tires and the commander of tires are the commander of the comma

25X1

25X1

25X1

	Approved For Release 200 Apart CIA-RDP80-00809A000600010031-2
	6. The quality of tires on the wehicles: was good.	_
	-end-
•
	I

ENCLOSURE (A): A sketch and legend of the Divisional Drivers School in Rudolstadt.

25X1 25X1

DIVISIONAL DRIVERS SCHOOL IN RUDOISTADT

LEGERD

Point

#2 #2 #3
#37444	white stone building 70 x 30m.
	lst floor - billets
	2nd floor - classrooms
m.	3rd floor - classrooms
###	Barracks for an (?) engineering unit: three-story
	white stone building 70 x 30m; this unit wintered
!!	here but moved to a training area in the summertime.
#5	Building in ruins.
#O	Street, name unknown.
#[	Parade ground: 1.00 x 1.00m.
#8	Mess and club: two-story white stone building, 30 x 20m lst floor - EM mess
	2nd floor - Officers mess and club
#9	Empty building: three-story stone structure, 70 x 30m.
#10	Garage: one-story brick building, 40 x 20m; housed the vehicles which were used for instruction purposes (three
#	studebaker and three ZIS trucks, and three jeeps)
#11	POL station.

NOTE: All measurements are approximate.